THE MAGAZINE OF AMERICAN HISTORY

THE NINETEENTH VOLUME COMMENCES WITH JANUARY, 1888.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, $5 A YEAR, IN ADVANCE.

The high character and growing importance of this standard and popular periodical are becoming more generally known and cordially appreciated with every issue. It is a marvel of excellence. The ablest and the most charming historical writers are constantly contributing to its pages the fresh results of careful research and profound study. This magazine is doing more to cultivate a national taste for historical literature, and the desire for authentic knowledge concerning the affairs of the past which affect the present and future of our country, and ourselves, than any other monthly publication in the world.

It is edited with such skill that it never fails to interest readers of all ages and creeds, and it educates the young. It includes in its scope topics locally interesting in all parts of the country; and it is without a rival in its special field.

Its illustrations are of the choicest character and always of historic significance. Many rare and valuable portraits are here engraved for the first time.

PRESS OPINIONS.

"This splendid publication covers in its issues from month to month and year to year the entire field of the history of this continent from its remotest periods to the events of to-day. It is welcomed throughout the whole land for the reason that it is national in its character."—New Orleans Daily City Item.

"It is edited by one of the most accomplished historians in the country, and is growing in interest every month for the general public. The articles are well written, and are upon subjects that fascinate and rivet attention."—Memphis Appeal.

"We always take up the 'Magazine of American History' with increasing interest and high expectations, and have never yet been disappointed. All its articles are of interest and valuable."—Princeton Press, New Jersey.

"In its pages from month to month appear the freshest, best authenticated, and most readable accounts of the great events in our national history."—New York Observer, New York.

"It is edited with good judgment and with expert knowledge of what such a periodical should offer."—The Congregationalist, Boston.

"It is one of the finest periodicals printed in America."—The Norwich Bulletin, Connecticut.

"Every article is worthy of careful reading and of equally careful preservation."—The Interior, Chicago.

"Happy are those who possess the entire series, so rich in lore not elsewhere accessible, save to a favored few, made more precious by the reproductions of some of the rarest treasures of art."—Montreal Gazette, Canada.

"It is an admirably diversified collection of papers, not too heavy for the entertainment of the average reader, and not too light for real value."—New York Tribune.

"It is one of the most carefully edited periodicals in the country."—New York Times.

"Its contributors present a rare cluster of eminent names."—Albany Argus, N. Y.

"This magazine stands quite alone, both in England and America, for general attractiveness in its own chosen field."—Boston Advertiser.

"One of the most interesting and valuable of America publications."—Toronto Mail, Canada.

"It is recognized as one of the best historical publications in this country, and it is to be complimented on its excellence, and congratulated on its success."—Brooklyn Times.

"The distinguished ability with which this magazine is conducted has made it an indispensable visitor to the table of authors and scholars, as well as a popular favorite."—Boston Home Journal.
